TWO-MAN FIGHT FOR LEADERSHIP OF B. C. CONSERVATIVES SEEN

Herbert Anscomb and R. L. Maitland Expected to Be Only Candidates on Eve of Party Convention at Kamloops—Howard Green, M.P., Attending Gathering Only as Spectator

KAMLOOPS, Sept. 22.—Coming from every corner of the province, Conservatives taxed all normal accommodation in Kamloops tonight, and overflowed into Pullman cars sidetracked at the station, in preparation for the opening of leadership convention at the Masonic Hall tomorrow. Outside of "courtesy nominations" without voting strength, the leadership contest has already narrowed down to Herbert Anscomb, senior Conservative member for Victoria, and R. L. Maitland, K.C., Conservative member for Vancouver-Point Grey.

Howard Green, M.P. for Vancouver South, mentioned by friends as a possible third choice, told The Colonist definitely tonight he is here as a spectator, and does not seek the position. Traditional "dark horses" (and there were several of them) had the same replies to make, when questioned.

In lobbies and among riding delegations the real battle for support is actively going on, and it is believed that Anscomb and Maitland supporters, with Vancouver and Victoria delegations both split on the issue. The choice will come by the open ballot vote on the floor of the convention, probably on Saturday morning.

SEAWAY PLANS GIVEN SETBACK

Premier Hepburn Refuses to Join Dominion in Technical Study of Proposals

OTTAWA, Sept. 22.—Negotiations for joint development of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence seaway and power project, revived by the United States last May with a new basis for agreement and urged again by President Roosevelt in his Ontario speech in August, were given a further setback today.

Prime Minister Mackenzie King received from Premier Hepburn of Ontario a refusal to enter upon technical study of the project as it affects power development in that province. There was no immediate official comment.

SUGGESTED CONFERENCE
The Prime Minister, on August 30 invited Mr. Hepburn to send representatives for a conference with Federal Government technicians, looking toward an agreement on the power aspect of the development—the phase in which Ontario is most vitally concerned.

Last May the United States Government submitted a draft treaty which would replace that approved by Canada in 1922, but which failed on successive occasions to obtain the necessary support in the United States Senate.

Mr. Mackenzie King now will be faced with the necessity of advising the United States of the situation in Canada with respect to the project and what possibilities exist for joint action at some future date.

TWO INJURED AT CHILLIWACK FAIR

Eight-Year-Old Boy Fractures Both Wrists—Lady Rider Dislocated Elbow

CHILLIWACK, Sept. 22.—Horses brought hard luck to competitors in the Chilliwack Exhibition's equestrian events for the second time today as Mrs. Tony Anderson took a spill in the ladies' horse race and dislocated her elbow. The previous victim was the eight-year-old son of Thomas Lee, who is in hospital with both wrists fractured. He was injured yesterday when the pony he was riding fell while taking a jump. The oval at the Chilliwack Exhibition. Spectators saw the horse fall on the youngster, who was taken to the hospital. Besides his broken wrists he was severely shaken.

Chamberlain and Hitler Continue Conversations On Czechoslovak Crisis

TELEGRAM IS SENT BY LONG ROUTE TO GET ROUND STORM
HALIFAX, Sept. 22 (AP).—A telegram message from Montreal by way of Australia today, wire trouble caused by the hurricane along the North Atlantic Coast, disrupted communication between Montreal and the Maritimes, so Imperial Cable Company operators sent the message around the storm to Australia and then back to Halifax.

PRIME MINISTER APPEALS FOR MAINTENANCE OF ORDER WHILE NEGOTIATIONS PROCEED IN GERMANY—MEMBERS OF CABINET STRIVE TO RALLY PUBLIC OPINION IN SUPPORT OF LEADER

GOESBERG, Germany, Sept. 22 (AP).—Prime Minister Chamberlain and Reichsfuehrer Hitler weighed the future of Czechoslovakia today in the first of a series of delicate conferences marking their second meeting in eight days.

WARSAW SCENE OF BIG PARADE

WARSAW, Sept. 22 (AP).—In one of the greatest street demonstrations ever witnessed in Warsaw, tens of thousands of Poles tonight demanded immediate abolition of the boundary between Poland and Czechoslovakia.

While additional Polish troops moved into Teschen, on the Polish side of the disputed border district, Pilsudski Square and streets leading into it were jammed with a parade estimated at from 150,000 to 200,000 persons.

Various organizations affiliated with the unity movement were present under order but thousands congregated without any sign of instructions. Tens of thousands joined in a parade which took two hours to pass and marched to the residence of Marshal Edward Smigly-Rydz, inspector-general of the army.

Poland yesterday presented to Great Britain, France and Czechoslovakia a demand for cession to Poland of the land inhabited by Poles. Its present border was fixed July 28, 1920, under an agreement engineered by the conference of ambassadors at Paris after Czechoslovak troops had advanced and occupied a part of the district in January, 1919, while Poland was fighting Soviet Russia.

These figures were exclusive of the graduate and directed reading courses which will not be complete until October 14.

Formal opening ceremonies were held yesterday and the voice of Dean Daniel Buchanan of the Arts Faculty was heard in an appeal for "educational freedom."

THREAT OF FLOOD AND FAMINE ADDS TO HURRICANE'S HORROR

Count of Dead Nears 350, Toll of Savage Storm Lashing North Atlantic States—Rising Rivers At Dangerous Heights—Damage Incalculable With Homeless in Thousands

Houses, Cottages and Boats Reduced to Piles of Kindling

NEW YORK, Sept. 22 (AP).—Floods—and in some areas hunger—threatened tonight a revisitation of horror to seven North Atlantic states where the lengthening count of the dead from a savage hurricane approached 350.

Amid the widespread destruction brought by the storm—the worst to strike that rich and heavily populated section in a century—the people fearfully watched ever-rising streams.

QUEBEC HAS TWO DEATHS

STRUGGLING BACK TO NORMAL AFTER COMMUNICATIONS DISRUPTED BY STORM
MONTREAL, Sept. 22 (AP).—Quebec province set the death toll at two tonight, as residents struggled to return to normal living after fierce rain and wind disrupted communications—and left city streets and country roads littered with debris.

Emergency crews rushed repairs to power lines in Montreal, with several suburbs and a few city districts still without electricity.

Both deaths were in Montreal. Robert Darwin, twenty-five, was electrocuted by a falling high-tension wire at the height of the storm last night. Damien Papineau, fifty-eight, was fatally injured when the taxi he was driving skidded into a safety island.

Reports of damage continued to reach Montreal from provincial points, as telephone and telegraph circuits were re-established. Granby and other towns in the district were without lights and power throughout the day, and several thousand workers were idle as their homes were unable to operate.

ONE KILLED BY SHIFTING EARTH

GLASGOW, Mont., Sept. 22 (AP).—One man was killed and eight others were reported missing after a shift of earth in the east abutment of the Fort Peck Dam this afternoon.

United States Army engineers said no damage was done to the dam proper. Millions of yards of dirt was pushed into the lake upstream from the dam by the earth slide, which left a chasm 200 feet deep and about 300 feet wide.

The missing men were working in the core pool at the abutment when the shift occurred.

Army engineers had not identified the one recovered body and did not furnish a list of the names of the missing men at once.

Fruit Growers Again Press for Inquiry by Federal Government

Ottawa Suggests Action Be Taken Against Alleged Combine in Marketing Under Sales on Consignment Act by Complainants Not Satisfied

KELOWNA, Sept. 22 (CP).—In answer to a telegram from A. K. Loyd, British Columbia Fruit Growers' Association president, urging that immediate action be taken into the request from the association that the Federal Government investigate the charges laid by G. Godfrey Isaacs, Oyma fruit grower, that there is a combine existing in the Okanagan between shippers and jobbers, Hon. Norman Rogers, Federal Minister of Labor, has replied.

"Only representations received from British Columbia Government or from fruit growers relate to control of certain shipping agencies by jobbing corporations, as described fully in Godfrey Isaacs' statement at Vernon on August 16. I have suggested that Provincial Government invoke Sales on Consignment Act which was passed following the Combines Act investigation in 1925, to remedy such conditions and under which court action is possible without delay. I have also stated that if this proves ineffective and evidence is produced pointing to contravention of Combines Act, the latter can be utilized.

They consider action under the Sales on Consignment Act is merely prosecution and not thorough investigation. The alleged combine operates from a source outside province jurisdiction. British Columbia producers do not desire superficial revenge on possible wrongdoers but a basic investigation of distribution channels. Hon. Gordon Wismer's opinion is there is insufficient scope under the Sales on Consignment Act."

REPLIES TO MINISTER

To this wire President Loyd replied:

"Growers gravely disturbed by uncertainty of Dominion Government's support of investigation under the Combines Act. They consider action under the Sales on Consignment Act is merely prosecution and not thorough investigation. The alleged combine operates from a source outside province jurisdiction. British Columbia producers do not desire superficial revenge on possible wrongdoers but a basic investigation of distribution channels. Hon. Gordon Wismer's opinion is there is insufficient scope under the Sales on Consignment Act."

Wires were also dispatched by President Loyd to Hon. T. D. Pattullo and Hon. G. S. Wismer, expressing the hope that they will be able to obtain a comprehensive investigation by the Dominion Government, when they are in Ottawa. Mr. Isaacs, in commenting on Hon. Norman Rogers' latest wire, stated that fresh evidence has been obtained and when this is considered he is satisfied Mr. Rogers will grant the investigation.

CONVERSATIONS ON CRISIS CONTINUE

For the first part of today's discussion, Mr. Chamberlain and Hitler were attended only by their interpreters, I. A. Kirkpatrick and Paul Schmidt.

Shortly before they ended the meeting they entered the main conference room on the second floor of the hotel and continued their talks in the presence of Joachim von Ribbentrop, German Foreign Minister.

Mr. Chamberlain was greeted by Von Ribbentrop, Ernest von Weizsäcker, State Secretary for Foreign Affairs, Sir Neville Henderson, British Ambassador to Berlin, and Dr. Herbert von Dierken, German Ambassador to London.

GUARD OF HONOR

A guard of honor from the famous Death Watch Battalion which looks after the safety of the Fuehrer, accompanied by its band, goose-stepped before Mr. Chamberlain and then played "God Save the King" before the Prime Minister and his aides as they were escorted to their headquarters.

Almost all afternoon the bright green mountain that rises on the east bank of the Rhine was speckled with the black and brown and green of German uniforms.

From the narrow streets of Koenigswinter to the light tan facade of Mr. Chamberlain's hotel on the mountain top, "SA" and "S" formations and police stood at attention.

CHEERED ON ARRIVAL

Holiday Rhineland folk cheered the British party on its arrival at its headquarters hotel.

Then, as Mr. Chamberlain came down the stairs to cross the Rhine to see Hitler, the drums of the Honor Guard rolled, and troops crashed their heels together.

Mr. Chamberlain, looking refreshed and confident, smiled warmly but kept his arms at his side.

The trip to Godesberg was made by automobile, the Rhine crossing being made by ferry, and shortly before 4 p.m. Hitler stepped out from the Hotel Dreesen to receive Mr. Chamberlain literally with open arms.

RAILYING OPINION

LONDON, Sept. 22 (P).—Cabinet Ministers today strove to rally public opinion around Prime Minister Chamberlain while he sought with Chancellor Hitler of Germany means of securing the future peace of Europe.

Viscount Halifax, Foreign Secretary, in a statement, called Mr. Chamberlain's second flight to Germany in a week a "courageous mission for peace," warned the public against premature conclusions and urged it to "wait for the time when the Prime Minister will be in a position to place the country in full possession of the facts."

Earl Winterton, Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, said in a speech at Hordham that Mr. Chamberlain took proposals to Germany "which, in the circumstances, France and ourselves believe we can honestly and honorably make and which the Czechoslovakian Government have accepted."

BALDWIN AT PALACE

Political speculation was stirred briefly by an hour's visit to the King in Buckingham Palace by Earl Baldwin, Mr. Chamberlain's predecessor as Prime Minister. But a statement from the palace said no special significance should be attached to the audience.

LONDON, Sept. 22 (P).—A rising temper was noted tonight at numerous meetings called to protest.

Date for Music

Pupils' Recital
Set for Oct. 14

The Victoria Branch of the British Columbia Music Teachers' Federation decided at its September meeting, held at the Y.W.C.A. on Wednesday, that the next monthly pupils' recital would be on October 14. The branch has also decided to have musical evenings at the Y.W.C.A. during the winter months.

Following the formal part of the business procedure, the members listened to an interesting talk by Miss Gwendoline Harper on her experiences as a student of the University of Washington Summer music course, from which she recently returned. She described the many concerts available to the 3,000 students from all parts of the continent who were taking advantage of the course, and spoke of the employment derived from the meetings and exchanging of views with other musicians. Reginald Cox, the president, was in the chair, and expressed the meeting's thanks to Miss Harper.

Australian Predicts Coming

General Recession in Trade Of Antipodes

Predicting a general business recession in Australia, following years of gradual recovery since the depression years, Charles Lloyd Jones, chairman of the board of directors of David Jones Limited, Sydney, department store, landed in Victoria yesterday on the first leg of a year's world cruise. The firm, founded by his grandfather 100 years ago, is the fifth largest store in the British Empire.

The main factor that will give Australia business trouble in the near future is that wheat and wool prices failed to regain last year's losses in 1938, with the result that the Government is thinking of taking measures to tide the producers over," the official stated in an interview at the Empress Hotel.

IMPORTANT POSTS

Apart from his capacity as head of the firm, Mr. Jones is also president of the Australian National Travel Association Tourist Development Bureau, and a member of the committee appointed by the National Government to represent Australia at the 1939 World Expo in New York. He was first chairman of the Australian Broadcasting system, which was modeled along lines of the B.B.C. at approximately the same time the C.B.C. was instituted in Canada, but resigned two years ago due to pressure of business.

Tall, erect, and gifted with a remarkable memory, the business official shot pointed questions concerning the state of Canadian affairs, while carefully answering queries asked by the interviewer. He is accompanied by his wife and two children, David and Charles, and Miss P. I. Hughes, a niece. The party will travel first to San Francisco, then to Los Angeles, Chicago, back into Canada, and later to New York.

At 7:30 p.m. Rev. J. E. Bell will lead the devotional service. The missionary hour will be under the direction of Mrs. James Hood and Miss G. Baker, the former speaking on "Missionary Teaching in the Sunday School," and the latter on "Teaching Missions to the Different Grades."

Attorney-General On Hunting Trip

KELOWNA, B.C., Sept. 22 (P).—Hon. G. S. Wismer, British Columbia's Attorney-General, today was joined by a party of Kelowna sportsmen on a hunting trip to Hamilton Range, about fifty miles northwest of here, between Kamloops and Merritt.

The Kelowna party was headed by L. B. Spurr, president of the British Columbia Fish and Game Association.

The duck season opened yesterday morning in the eastern district and fair bags have been reported. Few hunters have succeeded in getting their limit of birds, however.

Eastern Ontario felt the brunt of the wind and rain. Western and northern sections reported general rain, but little wind.

Between 50 and 75 per cent of the orchards in the Upper St. Lawrence Valley were damaged. SALMON PACK IS VALUABLE

Facts Connected With Canning of the Fish Given by Assistant Commissioner

George J. Alexander, assistant commissioner of fisheries for British Columbia, in a very interesting address yesterday before the Rotary Club in the Empress Hotel, told of the development of the salmon canning industry on the Coast and described the methods that were employed in putting up the pack, which was of such great value industrially to the Province. The value of the pack yearly was from $8,000,000 to $12,000,000. In the carrying on of the industry, there was an investment of from $20,000,000 to $24,000,000.

In the industry of canning the salmon from 15,000 to 20,000 persons were directly and indirectly employed, and the output of the canneries represented from 1,250,000 to 1,500,000 cases.

Mr. Alexander stated the industry originated on the Coast about 1860, when a cannery was started on the Sacramento River in California. By the year 1870, the industry had spread, and the first cannery was started on the Fraser River. Since that time, the process of canning had changed very materially. In the early days the work was all done by hand and men labored all winter making cans for the following season. The salmon was boiled in those days in vast vats of water and throughout the work was very different from the process that was now employed.

In the present days of canning, practically all the work was done by machinery. In passing the speaker called attention to the fact that there was no coloring matter used in connection with the canning of the fish. It had been a difficult job to convince the British buyers that this was a fact.

The assistant commissioner described the whole process of packing, telling of the exactness of the work to insure the cans being all of the same weight, which was carried out by mechanical contrivances that rejected the underweights and the overweights.

The utmost care was taken, he said, to insure cleanliness and every sanitary need.

BYSTANDERS SHOT DOWN

Machine-guns were said by D.N.B. to have rattled from armored cars, killing and wounding numerous bystanders.

German dispatches said the terrified Sudeteners, hastily removing festive flags and garlands, closed their stores in Eger and Asch, since they understood Czechoslovak troops were planning to take over these Sudeten towns during the night.

The dispatches asserted members of a "Red Guard," together with returned gendarmes, were patrolling Eger and Asch streets, where shooting and scuffles were said to be continuing.

Telephone communication with the two towns was disrupted.

SAYS SUDETENS SHOT

BERLIN, Sept. 22 (P).—Official German news agency dispatches tonight reported Czechoslovak troops had fired on celebrating Sudeten Germans of the Eger frontier district, killing sixteen men and women.

The dispatches from Eger declared the outbreak occurred when troops, acting on orders from Prague, reoccupied areas previously evacuated after the Government agreed to cede them to Germany.

The official agency, D.N.B., said troops reappeared at 4 p.m., when village streets of the Eger district were crowded with joyously celebrating citizens who had befriended their towns after Polish withdrawal.

BYSTANDERS SHOT DOWN

Machine-guns were said by D.N.B. to have rattled from armored cars, killing and wounding numerous bystanders.

German dispatches said the terrified Sudeteners, hastily removing festive flags and garlands, closed their stores in Eger and Asch, since they understood Czechoslovak troops were planning to take over these Sudeten towns during the night.

The dispatches asserted members of a "Red Guard," together with returned gendarmes, were patrolling Eger and Asch streets, where shooting and scuffles were said to be continuing.

Telephone communication with the two towns was disrupted.

Opens Drive to Make League Attractive to Non-Member Nations

British Delegate Moves for Separation of League Covenant From Versailles Treaty and New Interpretation of Obligations

GENEVA, Sept. 22 (AP).—Great Britain started today what was considered a campaign to remodel the League of Nations into a form attractive to Germany and other former members. It was even reported in diplomatic quarters that a part of Prime Minister Chamberlain's current Godesberg conversations with Adolf Hitler would be aimed at bringing Germany back into the League fold.

Britain's moves before the League were directly connected with her Assembly's political committee to policy in the Czechoslovak crisis. day were believed in League quarmentary foreign under-secretary, asked that the question be considered immediately. He said the committee of ten jurists, appointed by last year's Assembly to study the question, reported favorably on separation of the League Covenant from the Versailles pact.

"STIGMA OF VERSAILLES"
If such a move took place it would remove what German and Italian observers have called the League's "stigma of Versailles." This also would leave little more of the peace treaty that ended the Great War than some of its territorial changes.

Mr. Butler's next move before the political committee was to strike from the Covenant—at least from the British Government's interpretation of it—the last hint of unconditional obligation to apply punitive measures against an aggressor nation.

He summed up his Government's attitude as follows:
1. That there were no "unconditional obligations" to apply punilive measures embodied in Article XVI of the Covenant.

2. That there was, however, general obligation for members to consult in the event of aggression on what, if any, measures they would take.

LEAGUE SANCTIONS
3. That each member of the League should be judge of the extent to which it would participate in League sanctions, if at all.
4. That the principle that war in any part of the world interested the whole League, was still applicable.

Finally, Mr. Butler proposed, the committee agreed, to discuss collaboration with non-member states. The Hungarian delegate, Zoltan Haranyai, declared the League must start work under Article XVIII of the Covenant, which calls for revision of treaties, if it is to fulfill its mission of preventing war.

Japan's refusal to come to Geneva on the League's invitation to discuss the Chinese-Japanese conflict, received prior to today's session, gave China the choice between asking the council to recognize a state of war in the Far East or dropping her appeal for League aid. Dr. V. K. Wellington Koo, chief of the Chinese delegation, apparently decided to take the former course.

ACTION FILED AGAINST SHIP

Beulah, Now Lying Alongside Local Dock, Figures In U.S. Court

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 22 (AP).—The Standard Vacuum Oil Company, of New York, filed a maritime libel action in Federal Court today asking $45,000 damages from J. Moore & Company, Inc., of San Francisco, for destruction of a cargo of oil and petroleum products shipped from San Francisco aboard the motorship Beulah, December 14, 1937.

The complaint, which seeks an attachment against the ship, alleged the cargo, which was destined for delivery in the South Seas, was delivered instead at Vancouver, B.C., in a deteriorated condition.

The ship called at British Columbia ports, but as it sailed away, it encountered a heavy storm off Cape Flattery. Its cargo shifted, and the ship listed so sharply it was necessary to put in at Victoria. While the Beulah was tied up there, it sank, and was not raised until last March. The oil and petroleum cargo was badly damaged.

Carriso, Inc., owner of the Beulah, has pending in Federal Court proceedings asking that their liability be limited.

Eastern Canada buys Seven Million Pounds of B.C. Salmon

The Industrial East buys more than 7,200,000 lbs. of canned salmon from British Columbia. One of the most important units in this market is the Automotive Industry with 130,000 people dependent upon it, and eating their share of good things!

In addition to canned salmon, British Columbia ships more than half a million cases of fruit to the East, more than 180 million feet of lumber, many thousands of tons of lead and zinc, as well as large orders of other goods.

Consider the $40,000,000 the Industrial East spends annually in the Prairie Provinces for foodstuffs of all kinds. Does that money stay in the Prairie Provinces? No, a part of it keeps moving Westward to purchase in British Columbia its fruit, lumber, canned salmon, manufactures and many other things as well.

This direct and indirect business relationship with the Industrial East is a stabilizing factor in British Columbia's domestic commerce. Whatever your occupation, you benefit from these large purchases which help keep the wheels moving in almost every type of manufacturing and distributing enterprise.

The purchasing power of the Automotive Industry is felt right across the Dominion. It quickens the movement of domestic trade, creates Provincial purchasing power, sustains payrolls. Inter-provincial business of this kind is the foundation of Canada's economic stability, and therefore important to every home in British Columbia.

For statistical and further information about this industry, write to Automotive Industries, 1006 Lansden Building, Toronto.

WHAT OF THE FUTURE?

In these days when respect for international law and observance of the pledged word have sunk to such an inconceivably low level, there are no iron-bound guarantees that Germany can give regarding any plan she has to keep the peace of Central Europe. Discussions at Berchtesgaden and Godesberg conceivably have mooted the possibility of something in the nature of a diplomatic understanding in which Great Britain, France, Germany and Italy would be partners. Such a consummation would presumably be designed to prevent further aggression in Europe on the part of any Power. Great Britain has no purposes in that direction; neither has France. Germany definitely has, and the belief is, too, that Italy, if occasion served, would extend her way on the Adriatic coastline and the Mediterranean Sea. Any concert of the Powers developed out of the Sudeten settlement would be designed to curb the growth of the area controlled by dictatorship. The very character of the issue of the Sudeten problem and the manner in which efforts are being made towards a settlement, create a precedent for similar happenings.

The whole course of Nazism in Germany indicates that country, under its present regime, does not regard itself as bound by international law. There is, too, a belief that will be entertained by Herr Hitler, as a result of his latest coup, which will inspire him with the ambition to proceed from conquest to conquest, peacefully or otherwise. His aggrandizement of the country he governs is being achieved by a series of master strokes, making Germany stronger and stronger in man power and in material resources. It is not in the nature of dictatorship to call a halt on the road to territorial acquisitions when these come so readily to hand, without the expenditure of a Prussian grenadier. Germany's loss of her colonial Empire finds its corollary in her desire for expansion in Europe. She is seeking in the heart of Europe the material advantages in trading and in other ways that she claims to have lost overseas as a result of the Great War. No diplomatic arrangement is at all likely to stem the tide of German ambition. It is of the vaulting variety which ultimately must overleap itself.

The fact that the decision in the Sudeten dispute is in the hands of one man, Herr Hitler, shows what dictatorship implies. He is under no compulsion to consult his cabinet, his legislative body or the people of Germany. He himself is the arbiter, and it is his say so, more in the future than in the past, that will decide the fate of Central Europe, that is if the democratic Powers continue to decline the challenge of dictatorship. There is no hoodwinking of the fact that by threat of arms Germany has won both a diplomatic and territorial triumph. That is what overshadows every other aspect of the situation of the past few weeks. In the face of it it is difficult, if not impossible, to imagine what iron-bound guarantees there could be about the future, for at this juncture, and because of the delicacy of the negotiations in progress, Great Britain and France are wholly unlikely to indicate any possible course of joint action in view of certain eventualities. Therein a threat would be implied, and it will not be made.

Until there is a new moral understanding about the sanctity of international law, there can be no peace in the world. At present the ethics of diplomacy, so far as good faith is concerned, have reached a low level in the estimation of some of the nations. Nationalism refuses to be bound by sanctions, and in Germany, where nationalism is so intense, the public conscience assumes that right is on the side of a destiny to be achieved. That conception makes any guarantees for the future arising out of the Berchtesgaden and Godesberg conferences such as are likely to prove nugatory. Mr. Chamberlain, with the support of France, has stooped to conquer in the interests of immediate peace, and seemingly has triumphed. It may well be that time will show he has won but a Pyrrhic victory.

ENVY

Envy is more commonly found among those who have an inordinate affection for wealth than among the vast majority who are in the middle rank of life. Jealousy is one thing, and envy quite another. A man may be jealous of his own rights without the least tincture of envy towards other people. He may be thrifty in very small matters and "gather gear by every wit that's justified by honor," without indulging in covetousness or envy. Envy is indeed a base passion, the vice of small minds. It is not merely the vice of ungenerous minds. It is also the unfailing index of a low grade of intelligence. Common sense soon teaches ordinary people that there is no measuring-rod by which the satisfactions that belong to domestic happiness, for example, or bodily health, can be compared with those that are derived from material wealth or political power. The unreflective individual of low mentality seems to have difficulty in grasping the idea that there is no common unit of measurement between one type of blessing or benefit and another. There is no scale that can be brought to an exact balance by putting upon one side so many dollars worth of worldly goods and so many years of sound bodily health, and on the other such and such an allowance of domestic happiness and such and such a golf handicap. There is no weighing machine, there is no system of arithmetic that would induce any man in the full possession of his faculties to exchange health and domestic happiness in a cottage for a life of bodily sickness in a ducal palace.

By an odd twist of mentality, envy, although it usually goes with a sense of inferiority, is also found in those who have an exalted idea of their own importance. If we place too high a value upon our unrequited services to our fellow men, we are apt to think that society or fate has been unkind to us, that our fortune has not been equal to our deserts. Excessive exercise of the critical faculty carries unpleasant consequences with it. Faultfinding and complaining about hard luck, particularly when accompanied by a feeling of envy, reacts with deadly effect upon the character of the fault-finder himself. A man may be so placed that he is not covetous of the material wealth of others, and yet if his health is not good, if his domestic affairs are unhappy, if his social or political ambitions remain unsatisfied his life may be poisoned by envy directed towards those who enjoy, or seem to enjoy, these advantages.

There is something so sinister in envy that most men feel a certain discomfort, not to say fear, when the evil eye of envy is turned in their direction. It is a matter of common observation that persons in high position try to dull the edge of envy, as it were, by complaining of the burdens and inconveniences that accompany the responsibilities of wealth and power. "Public envy," says an old writer, "is as an ostracism that eclipses men when they grow too great." Of all miseries, envy is said to be the most persistent. Some other affections are occasional and intermittent. They can be appeased or satisfied for a time, but envy does not sleep or keep holiday. It has been described as the vilest affection and the most depraved. Montaigne said that other passions have objects to flatter them, which objects seem to content and satisfy them for a while. There is power in ambition, pleasure in luxury, and self in covetousness, but envy can gain nothing but vexation.

Our own Dr. Samuel Johnson exhorts us to keep our wishes within the bounds of moderation, because whatever enables us to depress immediate wishes will, at the same time, "set the heart free from the corrosion of envy, and exempt us from that vice which is, above most others, tormenting to ourselves, hateful to the world, and productive of mean artifices and sordid projects."

THE NEW MODERATOR

The election of Rev. J. W. Woodside, D.D., of Ottawa, as Moderator of the General Council of the United Church of Canada, now in session in Toronto, is notable in that he is the third Moderator out of eight to be chosen from the pastorate. The other five were officials, one of them a college Principal, while the remaining four were attached to the Church's headquarters in Toronto. This preponderance of officialdom in the highest position in the Church has been adversely criticized during the past few years. Ministers who were in the active ministry as preachers and pastors, it was contended, could better serve the Church than those whose work lay on its organizing side. The issue came to a head this year when the other nominee was Rev. Dr. Robert Laird, the honored treasurer of the Church. The Council evidently preferred the preacher and pastor as against the executive.

One of the reasons for the choice of five executive officers has been their greater freedom from the burden of the high office, which extends over two years. The pastor could attend to the larger constituency only at a sacrifice to himself and his congregation. To meet this difficulty the Council will this year consider the plan of two Moderators, each of whom will hold office for one year. The drift of opinion seems to be that the Moderator should be not so much an administrative head as a prophetic voice for the whole Church. Dr. Woodside, who is well known on this Coast as at one time a minister in Vancouver, is, from this point of view, a happy choice.

A number of British Columbia's Cabinet Ministers have moved to Ottawa on a mission to secure more largesse from the Dominion Government. Their absence will in no sense disrupt government in this Province. They are so often away from the capital that the fact has been established that it is the permanent officials who do the vast bulk of administration of the provincial affairs of the people.

Providence concerns itself in the details of human affairs, but becomes unveiled in the generalities of history.—Lamarine.

Peace at Any Price

Germany gobbles up Czechoslovakia while the rest of world looks on, successfully divides Spain with Italy, secures return of former colonies in Africa, demands the British Isles, precipitates war between the League and dictatorship. Wonder if all this will come to pass? Perhaps Germany and Italy will battle to the death, thus preventing future trouble. From time to time we read reports of how the supply routes and business blocks forcibly entered by thieves at night. Every hour of the twenty-four some person is going to or from work, or returning from some enjoyable evening. Hence it appears that a number of burglars must have been seen in action by someone who passed hurriedly by rather than be involved in a court case by informing the police. It should be the duty of any citizen to telephone the station at Garder Hill upon noticing the suspicious action of persons at night. This valuable assistance would be rendered in crime prevention.—G.B.

Vary With Districts

The ballot taken, under the direction of the Provincial Marketing Board, shows that the opinions regarding the continuation of the system of control varies somewhat widely according to the districts represented. In the Interior of the province control methods have a strong hold on the sympathy of the people, whether with regard to tree fruits or hothouse products, and so the ballots from that section of the province were entirely in favor of continuing the control. In the Lower Mainland where there has been a large increase in the production of field products, the ballots showed about an even division. On the Island the vote was rather strongly against control. It is now up to the Minister of Agriculture and the Marketing Board to weigh these adverse opinions.—O.H.N.

Glancing Over Sport

Do you know that Hon. Eric Hamber, Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia, has just recently been chosen as an honorary patron of the Toronto Argonauts for the coming season? The Governor was a leading member of this organization back in the "gay nineties," especially in rowing and rugby. One of the most likeable jockeys performing in the Victoria races is none other than Emile Sporti, who has been booting them home for nearly twenty years. Every time that Emile gets aboard a horse he is out to win and as always trying from the time the gates open until the race reaches the judges' stand. So the B.C. soccer commission turned down the bid of the Elks Club for a franchise in the Inter-City League. Well, all I can say, the big boys of British Columbia football made the wildest mistake of their careers. Time will bear out their statement.—J.D.

THE MILK QUESTION

Sir,—In an address dealing with the dangers of using unpasteurized milk, before the British Columbia Milk Producers' Association, Dr. Spohn, of Vancouver, is reported in the press as having said, "It was strange that British Columbia should lag behind such places as Ontario, where universal pasteurization has been achieved." Dr. Spohn should make reference on this question that is misleading. To say that Ontario or any other place has universal pasteurization is simply not true. Ontario is a not under any such law at the present time.

The public today are not in any doubt as to value of sanitary methods of handling milk. There is no more guarantee that pasteurization of milk is a safe method of handling milk than is the raw product. The producer of the raw milk is, in most cases, more particular than the producer of the pasteurized, and almost invariably has a lower bacterial count. He has to be careful in a market where he is selling fluid milk in competition with his fellow producers and the pasteurizers, as he has no pasteurizing plant to fall back on to cover up the poor quality of his product. He meets all Government tests, and is willing to have any regulation in reason in order that the consumer may get a higher grade of raw milk.

There are only three inherent diseases present in milk as it comes from the cow, viz. T.B., undulant fever and mastitis. Of these T.B. is the most serious, but there are less than 1 of 1 per cent of the cows on Vancouver Island reactors, the disease is well controlled here. Each of the other diseases are so rare in cattle as to be almost negligible. Undulant fever may be more readily acquired by contact than through the milk, and from pork as well as goats, so that even the cases there may be cannot all be attributed to cows' milk.

Of the milk-borne diseases, so called, typhoid, paratyphoid, scarlet fever, etc., all get into the milk stream after it leaves the cow, and pasteurized milk is even more susceptible to these than the raw. All these diseases are also water-borne diseases, and the worst epidemic of some of them, in England, were water-borne diseases, although a de-

Y.M.C.A. Secretary Thinks Moral Standards Lower—Young People at Rally

A challenge to church youth to combat the inhumanity of the easy way and the easy life was sounded by Frank Paulding in the course of an inspiring address at the rally of United Church Young People's Societies at Metropolitan Church on Tuesday evening. The address was entitled "Wake Up and Live."

"The altruistic instinct, which can never be crushed down in a human being, must be utilized. Both the Oxford Group and the Pentecostal are progressing by leaps and bounds because, first, while moral standards are slipping elsewhere," he said, "Mankind was built to create, to construct and to endure; but today we are in grave danger of losing our identity," said the speaker. In all school, Sunday observance and sex, the standards are lower than they were a generation ago."

The speaker was thanked by Bill Anderson, L. Cannon, president of the Metropolitan Society, welcomed the young people from the First United, James Bay, Oak Bay, Centennial, Mt. Tolmie, Victoria West, Fairfield, Belmont, Chinese, Wilkinson Road, and the Esquimalt Societies, who were guests—of the evening.

Robert Dymond conducted the song service which preceded the devotional section of the rally. Mr. Smith sang the selections "The Lord's Prayer" and "My Task," accompanied by May Hick.

OFFICERS ELECTED

Inaugurating the Fall season, the rally was only one of many major activities planned by the United Y.P. Societies for the year. The Belmont Society held its annual elections this week, which resulted as follows: President, Roy Hurdle; vice-president, Audrey Morrison; secretary, Mona Emery; treasurer, Arthur Zala; council representatives, Mona Emery and R. J. Whittle.

Miss E. F. Fitch was elected president of the Victoria West Society at its inaugural meeting this week, supported by an excellent executive. Planning an industrial tour next Tuesday, the First United Societies will also sponsor a regional rally on the subject of the Youth League as guests within the near future.

Representatives from all Lower Island United Societies will attend the annual meeting of the Y.P.U.C. Council on Wednesday, October 5, when a new president will be chosen. A prayer meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. at the Y.M.C.A. immediately preceding the committee reports, it was announced.

SOLARIUM IN NEED OF AID

Funds Required for Institution—Concert Held Last Night by Auxiliary

The story of a successful fight to bring crippled children back to sound, healthy and physically-strong bodies was displayed in motion pictures at the concert given last night in the Victoria Truth Centre Hall, Port Street, by the Women's Auxiliary of the Queen Alexandra Solarium.

The concert was held for the express purpose of adding to the funds of the institution, which is in need of financial assistance. Lieutenant Colonel Hugh Allan, vice-president of the Solarium, said in the brief address during an intermission: "May I tell you that we really do need help. I am not ashamed to beg. I would be ashamed not to for such a cause. Your individual help and the help of everyone of you in any form will be of great assistance to the Solarium. I know you will help because the appeal of helpless children is irresistible."

ENDOWMENT FUND
Colonel Allan stated that from time to time generous people had left money for the endowment fund. The fund was created so that the amount could be invested and in due course the income from the investments would be sufficient to pay current expenses. The fund, he said, could not be used for ordinary operating account and, therefore, it was necessary now to secure additional aid in order to carry on the important work.

The speaker briefly reviewed the objects of the institution. Cases treated are "Children whose normal physical activities are crippled through illness, accident or both; whether deformity exists or not." It requires a good deal of care on the part of our medical superintendent, Dr. Glen Simpson, in passing on cases before admission to be certain that there is a reasonable hope that the treatments will be effective, and the results so far obtained fully justify our confidence in Dr. Simpson. The speaker gave praise to other members of the now large staff at the Solarium.

FINANCES NEEDED
Dealing with the financial aspect, Colonel Allan declared that between $7,000 and $10,000 was required in excess of Government or municipal grants and this he said, had to be raised through donations and subscriptions. "It is a lot of money, but it is all spent on a work that must appeal to the business as well as the sentimental side of everyone."

Douglas Flintoff, who was chairman for the concert, and assisted materially in arranging the affair, showed a series of motion pictures of every-day life at the Solarium. The pictures showed the children at seasons, meals, recreation and a demonstration of treatment in the physiotherapy department together with views of the cast and splint shop, the efficient X-ray department and the results of progressive treatment in a number of the cases.

The Solarium, it was stated by Mr. Flintoff, recognizes no color race or creed in its efforts to cure the ills of a younger generation. The happiness surrounding the patients at the institution was indicated in every phase of the motion pictures. Ages of patients were from babyhood to teen age boys and girls, it was explained by Mr. Flintoff.

Before conclusion of the concert, Colonel Allan issued an invitation to the public to visit the Solarium at Mill Bay and see the work being done there.

The programme consisted of a novelty dance by Miss Patricia Richardson, solo by Miss Iris Smith, humorous songs by Miss Vivienne Combe and a monologue by James McGrath. The accompanist was Miss Kathleen Irvine. Besides the pictures of the Solarium, Mr. Flintoff showed scenes in Hatley Park, a comedy film of many years ago, "The Iron Horse," and an educational film of sea lions on the Pacific Coast.

LEGAL ACTION TAKEN AS RESULT OF FIGHTS

Stanton said John Doe warrants have also been issued for arrest of 140 unidentified non-striking employees on charges of common assault. He said he would also apply for habeas corpus writs to release two strikers held in Oakalla pending hearing so they could go to Blubber Bay and identify their alleged attackers.

CHARGES ASSAULT
A fourth warrant issued by Magistrate W. L. Parkin in Powell River is for the arrest of Andrew Williamson, Blubber Bay quarry foreman, charging common assault.

Stanton said he also has applied to Attorney General Wagner for a writ to sue the Crown for damages in connection with Saturday night's fight.

Meanwhile, telegrams protesting police action in the strike and demanding official investigations were sent today to legislative members at Ottawa and Victoria.

reconstruction that must now be faced.

Federal food and drug agents were directed to make systematic inspections against contamination.

Works Progress Administrator H. L. Hopkins hurried from the West Coast by plane to take charge of hundreds of relief employees called to help in relief work.

In the area of disaster, thousands of troops, police, Red Cross men and women, Boy Scouts, naval reservists and civilian volunteers were at work. There was minor looting reported.

Hardest hit of the seven states were Massachusetts and Rhode Island, each of which late in the day had a death list of around 100.

HIGH FATALITIES
New York, Connecticut and New Hampshire likewise had high fatalities. New Jersey and Vermont escaped the worst.

FOOD SHORTAGES
Food supplies appeared adequate for the immediate future in most sections, but some isolated towns in Massachusetts reported shortages.

The hurricane, which appeared late yesterday to have blown itself out in the Canadian Provinces of Quebec and Ontario, was followed by fire in some cities. A 300,000 cubic feet gas tank exploded in Providence, Rhode Island, amid the gale, and a ten-hour blaze helped push the total damage in historic old New London, Conn., to some $4,000,000.

Half-isolated Cape Cod, jutting out from Massachusetts into the open sea, reported more than a score of deaths at its base near the mainland.

VILLAGE SWEEP AWAY
An amateur radio operator reported the small fishing village of Menemsha, on Martha's Vineyard, a small island off the elbow of Cape Cod, was literally swept away, and at Edgartown, the county seat, scores were driven from their homes by the rapid rise of water. Many buildings in the island town of Chilmark were destroyed.

The nearby island of Nantucket escaped with less punishing blows. Governor Hurley, of Massachusetts, declared a food and fuel emergency. National Guardsmen marched into twenty-three towns in the state to preserve order and to facilitate relief work.

The centre of tragedy in New York State, where deaths approached the score, was at the exclusive Long Island Beach town of West Hampton, playground of New York society, where twelve were killed. At least a thousand homes, summer cottages as well as year-round residences, were smashed throughout Long Island.

RIVERS RISING
In the central part of the state, the report on the rivers was the same as elsewhere—"rising."

Connecticut, where the danger of flood was great, reported 1,000 families homeless.

New Hampshire suffered widespread loss of livestock and interruption of its milk shipments to Eastern metropolitan centres, as well as a loss of life proportionately high for its small population.

Vermont, all but isolated, likewise had heavy crop and property damage. "Rottenland" was wholly cut off by flood waters and many families had to be evacuated.

New Jersey's apple and late tomato crops were battered heavily. Before daylight, in up-state New York many families were forced to flee homes in the banks of overflowing streams.

HOUSES AFLOAT
Along the Long Island coast, aerial observers saw whole houses afloat.

How to Overcome Piles And Rectal Soreness

If you are annoyed with itching piles or rectal soreness, do not neglect the same or run the risk of an operation. Any itching or painful passage of stool, is nature's warning, and prompt treatment should be secured at once. For this purpose, use MacFarlane and Vancouver's Druggists' Cream, a package of Hemorrhoid and use as directed. This formula, which is used internally, quickly relieves the itching and soreness and aids in healing the sore tender spots. Hemorrhoid is a protracted, protracted, and is highly recommended. It is easy to use and it seems the best of all for rectal and hemorrhoid when a simple remedy, which is so pleasant to use may be had so high a reasonable cost.

GIVES REPORT ON CONVENTION

Councillor William Ellis Acclaims U.B.C.M. as Valuable Institution

A report of the annual Union of British Columbia Municipalities' convention, held at Nelson on September 14 and 15, was presented by Councillor William Ellis, who in company with Reeve R. R. Taylor and R. F. Blandy, municipal clerk, represented Oak Bay, to the council meeting yesterday.

The report read in part as follows: "The U.B.C.M. is, in my opinion, a most valuable institution. Its members are closer to the lives and thoughts of the general public than any other administrative body. Through it the municipalities can speak with one voice when dealing with the Government of the province."

"Through it every city and municipality can be represented and all delegates are assured of a patient and sympathetic hearing. The successful achievements of the U.B.C.M. in the past warrant its active support. Its future success depends not only upon the general support it receives, but upon the whole-hearted co-operation of all cities and municipalities one with another, for the one purpose of the public's good."

It was reported that sixty-five resolutions from all parts of the province were presented for consideration. Councillor Ellis also reported that the Oak Bay delegates took an active part in the debates on the resolutions.

BISHOP TO GO TO COURTENAY

Most Rev. John C. Cody, D.D., Will Attend Blessing of New Church

Bringing the total of resident Catholic churches now established on Vancouver Island to fifteen, in number, preparations are being made in Catholic circles here for the solemn blessing of the newly established Church of the Canadian Martyrs on Sunday at Courtenay.

Leading a delegation of priests and church officials from this city, Most Rev. John C. Cody, D.D., Bishop of Victoria, will leave Saturday afternoon for Courtenay to assist in the ceremony. The party will be welcomed at the Up-Island city by Rev. Father C. T. Albury, formerly of Victoria, who took charge of the parish when it was created four months ago.

Narrowly escaping destruction in the recent fires that at one time menaced the island centre, the church has a seating capacity of 325 persons. Of wood and brick construction, the edifice, built by the parishioners, serves as a more convenient place of worship for Courtenay residents. Previously, the nearest Catholic churches in the vicinity were at Cumberland and Comox.

Beginning with a special Mass Sunday morning, and a general parish communion, the blessing ceremony will include the Pontifical Benediction, following a reading of the blessing and a special sermon by Bishop Cody. Later a reception for visitors will be held in the Native Sons' Hall by the parish priest, Father Albury.

YOUNG PIANIST SHOWS TALENT

Gordon Manley, of Vancouver, Heard by Victoria Audience

Something well above ordinary musical talent was intimated in the playing of Gordon Manley, young Vancouver pianist, who last night gave a recital of pleasing character at the Empress Hotel. Sponsored by the I.O.G.E. the event gave a Victoria audience an opportunity to hear an artist of evident promise before he leaves in a few days' time for New York, where he is to continue his musical studies under some of the best modern masters.

Definitely musical and obviously having already had the very finest kind of training, Mr. Manley has an exuberant and effortless keyboard technique, unusually fine piano hands, an intelligent approach to his subject, and explicitness of intention. Although there is still room for much greater maturity of thought and feeling, he says what he has to say eloquently, directly, forcefully, and in an interesting way, and all who heard him last night gave the impression of having greatly enjoyed both the material set before them and the manner of its presentation.

He began his recital with the noble and dignified Bach-Busoni "Chaconne." Mr. Manley played this with intelligence, thoughtfulness, and dynamic tone, showing good sense of pattern in his excellent reading.

The Mozart "Sonata in A Major" brought out the daintier and lighter qualities of his technique, and his simplicity of style was maintained. The Chopin group, which composed the remainder of the first part of the programme, included the Ballade in F Minor, in which there was good sonority of tone, pleasing phrasing and nuance, and fluency of execution; the Etude in E Major, the stormy passages of which were most expressive; and the Scherzo in B Flat Minor, played with great exuberance of tone and mood as well as explicitness.

Two of the best things in the programme, interpretatively, were Stojowski's "Chant d'amour" and "Valse in D," both showing the pianist's feeling for melody, rhythm, and nuance, and admitting his affinity for his master's style of thought. These were brilliantly played and greatly enjoyed.

The remaining numbers on the programme were two Scriabin numbers, the short "Etude in D Sharp Minor" and the quietly played "Prelude G Flat," a very pleasing number; and the brilliant Dohnanyi "Capriccio in B Minor," pianistically the most outstanding thing on the programme and showing the player's facile command of the keyboard. For an encore he added the familiar and typically Spanish "Granada."

The injury of one workman, splashing of 1,650 gallons of oil all over the cellar, tripping of the sprinkler system which flooded the plant and turned in a fire alarm; collapse of a firebrick wall and the shattering of plate glass windows—all within five minutes.

The members stood in silence in tribute to the memory of the late Colonel Villiers, who was a great friend to many ex-service men and their families. For the splendid assistance given to the refugees of the fire by the Courtenay W.A., appreciation was expressed by the Provincial Command and the Canadian Legion. Many members were instrumental in organizing and providing much needed help at that time. Plans were made for several activities during the Fall and Winter seasons. The monthly whist drive will be held at the Legion Hall under the convenship of Mrs. Hayman, this month. Mrs. Plumbly will convene the sale of work to be held early in November. Many articles have been presented for the sale, and other articles are requested. A joint social evening with the Legion, to be held in November, was discussed. The National Council, held on Sunday, October 6, at 8 o'clock. Those interested, who will be traveling by bus, are asked to telephone 358 to enable the convenor to complete arrangements. Mrs. Roberts, as delegate to the provincial convention, gave a report of the proceedings.

W.C.T.U. Convention
The second day of the W.C.T.U. convention in New Westminster included a conference on Sunday school temperance study which lessons are nation-wide and are watched with interest by such branches in other countries. Miss Anne Fountain, field secretary of the Provincial Council, gave a concise outline of the type of temperance and Christian living study best suited to the child from infant years to school, teen age and upward. She also spoke of the use and abuse of alcohol in health and social living. She made an earnest appeal for a reformed adult group of Christians with firm principles and sympathetic helpful understanding of the problems which confront the young individual in his natural wish to be popular in his group. The quiet hour was conducted by Rev. J. L. Sloan, of the Baptist Church, taking as his topic "Christ in the Life of the Individual." The Communion service was conducted by Rev. F. J. Roubin, of Presbyterian Church, assisted by Rev. A. McIntosh, of the United Church. The afternoon session included discussions on "Scientific Temperance," "Instruction Among University Students," led by Mrs. R. C. Welton, "Peace and Arbitration," by Mrs. Rex Eaton, and a conference on Y.W.C.A. work, led by Miss Edna Grant, Laidlaw, B.C.

Will Recite for Women's Group
Mr. Alan Crawley, one of the most sensitive critics as well as one of the most expressive interpreters of verse, will be the speaker at the meeting of the Women's Canadian Club next Tuesday afternoon in the Empress Hotel, when he will recite his theme "The Pleasures of Poetry."

A former member of the legal profession in Winnipeg, Mr. Crawley is becoming as well known in British Columbia, where he took up residence two or three years ago, as he was there for his work as critic and author, and for his radio talks, and audiences here have already experienced the charm of his interpretations of contemporary and classical poetry, so that the Women's Canadian Club expects a good attendance at Tuesday's meeting. The soloist will be Mrs. T. H. Johns, the popular secretary of the club.

W.A. Board Greeted at Salt Spring

Many W.A. members enjoyed a delightful trip to Salt Spring Island on Wednesday, when the monthly board meeting of Columbia W.A. was held in the Community Hall at Ganges.

On arrival a short service was held by the rector, Rev. C. H. Popham, who spoke briefly on the mission work being done on the Island among Japanese young people. Eighteen had already been baptized, and were now being prepared for confirmation.

Following lunch, the afternoon meeting was opened with prayers read by Mrs. Mackenzie, of the cathedral branch. A warm welcome to W.A. members was extended by Mrs. Stacey, Salt Spring, who presented Mrs. F. J. Brimer with a bouquet of beautiful flowers. Mrs. Popham also added words of welcome.

A standing tribute was paid to those members who had passed to higher service—Miss Ard, England, Mrs. Porter, Mayne Island; Mrs. McElrath, of St. Mark's, and Mrs. Walker, of St. John's.

BUSINESS SESSION
The chair was taken by Mrs. F. J. Brimer in the absence of the president, Mrs. D. M. Duncan, who is attending the Dominion annual meeting in London, Ont.

Mrs. Lytton, corresponding secretary, read letters of thanks from Mrs. Weir and Mrs. Pearce, and one from Mrs. Greenway, who was unable to be present. A letter was read from Lasquet Island branch saying they were unable to continue, but would work for social service. The treasurer, Mrs. Ben-Gough, gave her financial statement and urged all members to make special efforts to raise funds for the increased pledge.

The Dorcas secretary gave a summary of her work. Outfitting fifteen girls and ten boys at the Indian Residential School, Alert Bay, and five boys at Carcross, the sending of bales of clothing for prairie relief, and the Christmas cheer for the Columbia Coast Mission.

Miss Lee, educational secretary, reported that orders for 1939 calendars were now being taken. The lantern slides illustrating the study book, "Builders of the Church in India" were to be shown at several city churches in the near future.

The social service secretary appealed for men's clothing. The girls' secretary's report showed a new branch at Royston.

Miss Checkley, junior superintendent, reported dolls had been judged in doll dressing competition and prizes awarded to the winners. The Little Helpers' secretary reported a new branch at St. Peter's, Duncan, and told of visits to several branches.

EXTRA CENTS FUND
Miss Gwynne, extra cents secretary, urged members to put aside one cent a week for this fund and thus raise money for many deserving appeals throughout the Dominion. Miss Moff appealed for more subscribers to the Living Message and Miss Rathbone, of the cathedral, spoke of the interesting articles to be found in the magazine. Mrs. Philip appealed for up-to-date novels for the Columbia Coast Mission.

An interesting talk was given by Miss Graves, who with Miss Carlisle visited former St. Christopher's College students, now doing much valuable work on the prairie by taking church services, preparing candidates for confirmation, taking Brownie and Cub meetings, etc.

Mrs. P. C. Niven moved a hearty vote of thanks to Rev. C. H. Popham for his address and to Salt Spring Island members for their kind hospitality.

The October board meeting is to be held in the Cathedral Memorial Hall.

"SHILLELAH" ARGUMENT
"We have been having an argument," writes a reader, "over the correct spelling, significance and origin of shillelah. Will you help us settle it?"

Shillelah, traditional and favorite walking stick of an Irishman, is also written shillilly, shillalah and shillilely; also, it is better to have an argument over than with it. In general usage, shillelah stands for "cudgel," though it has been applied to any club-like weapon.

Shillelah is straight Irish, in which tongue it meant first an oak sapling, and then the bludgeon fashioned from it. St. Patrick probably used one to drive the snakes out of the Emerald Isle. It really ought to be shilleagh; that is the name of the town in County Wicklow, Eire, famous for its oaks, after which we have the word.

LEE PITCHES FOURTH STRAIGHT SHUT-OUT WIN

CUBS' MOUND STAR TIES LEAGUE MARK BY BLANKING PHILS

Equals Record Made by Grover Alexander and Ed Ruelbach Back in 1908 and 1911—Pirates Trim Dodgers Twice and Giants Defeat Reds in Two Games to Advance

By The Canadian Press
Big Bill Lee, right-hander for Chicago Cubs, yesterday became the first National League pitcher in twenty-seven years to throw four consecutive shutouts as the Cubs kept on the heels of the first place Pittsburgh Pirates by sweeping a double-header from Philadelphia, 4-0 and 2-1.

Lee's performance in the first game equalled the National League record made by Grover Alexander of the Phillies in 1911 and Ed Ruelbach of the Cubs in 1908. If he pitches another shutout on his next time out, he will tie the Major League record of five consecutive shutouts made by Harry White of Chicago White Sox in 1914.

The victory was Lee's twentieth of the season and ran his string of scoreless innings to thirty-seven and one-third. He yielded ten hits to only six given up by Max Baer, of the Phils, but received brilliant support. Bill Herman's triple in the seventh, with Lee and Stan Hack on base, decided the game.

Clay Bryant chalked up his eighteenth victory by winning a pitching duel with Claude Passeau in the nightcap. A single by Bill Judge in the seventh inning scored Carl Reynolds with the winning run.

Boston Red Sox bunched hits to sweep a double-header from St. Louis Cardinals, 6-4 and 4-1.

Vince DiMaggio set a new National League strikeout record for a season when Mort Cooper made him fan for the 114th time in the first inning of the second game.

GIANTS CLIMB
New York Giants climbed into third place at New York by beating Cincinnati in both ends of a double-header, 6-1 and 2-1, behind the fine pitching of Hal Schumacher and Harry Gumbert. The Reds fell to fourth place, half a game back of Giants.

Meanwhile, the Pittsburgh Pirates, back in action after a four-day lay-off, marched nearly the National League pennant with a double-header victory over Brooklyn Dodgers, 6-0 and 11-6.

The twin win left the Cubs three and a half games in front of the second-place Chicago Cubs, and in a spot where they can afford to lose three of their ten remaining games and still capture the flag. Even if the Cubs should sweep the eleven engagements left on their schedule.

In the opener, the Cubs relied largely on the six-hit pitching of Jim Tobin. In the second game they clouted half-a-dozen hurriers for fourteen hits, with Arky Vaughan doing the most batting damage.

The opener marked Tobin's fourteenth victory of the season as he bettered Freddy Fitzsimmons, a four-hit, three-run rally in the second frame put the game on ice.

In the nightcap, Bob Klinger started—and won—for the Pirates, but when the Dodgers loaded the bases and had one run in during a seventh-inning spurge, Mac Brown was summoned to finish up and save Rookie Bob's twelfth victory.

YANKES WIN
New York Yankees used their old trade mark—the home run—to end their eight-year record six-game losing streak with a 7-4 victory over Chicago White Sox in the only American League game on the day's schedule.

Joe Gordon glouted his twenty-fourth four-bagger of the year, with two aboard in the sixth, to bring the world champions from behind and put them in the lead, and Red Wolfe whacked his tenth of the campaign with one on base in the ninth to break a tie and win the game.

EXPLANATION FOR YESTERDAY'S RIPLEY-CARTOON
Chinchilla—Rarest and Most Prized of Fur-Bearing Animals—The chinchilla, a squirrel-like animal that lives high up in the Andes of Chile and Peru, has been hunted and trapped almost to extinction. It is so wonderfully soft, of a French grey color darkly mottled, that it makes the most luxurious fur wraps in the world. A single chinchilla coat is valued at $50,000 or more. And so rare is the animal—though it takes but 150 pellets to make a wrap—there aren't many more than 100 in the world. So delicate are the live chinchilla that attempts to transport them usually were fatal until Pan-American Air Lines, "made the fur fly" by transporting them to the United States by plane at the same high altitudes in which they normally live.

BOXLA SQUADS MEET TONIGHT

Bluebirds Will Battle Bays In Play-Off Game at 8 o'Clock

One game down and in need of a victory to stay in the running for the intermediate box lacrosse championship, Coach Ted Menzies will have his James Bay stick-handlers at full strength for tonight's play-off battle with the Bluebirds. The fixture will be played under lights at the Royal Athletic Park and promises to attract another large crowd.

Bluebirds are defending the honors they won last season, and today have a one-game lead over the Bays by reason of their 13-8 triumph in the initial clash played last week. Ted Menzies' proteges will have to take tonight's engagement if they intend to halt the championship aspirations of the smooth-functioning Bluebirds, and force a third game to decide the titleholders.

Bays established a first-quarter lead in the opening battle, but could not cope with the reserve power of the Bluebirds and finally finished on the wrong end of the score. The match was one of the best of the season turned in by the two stick-handling aggregations, and with the outcome of tonight's tussle meaning so much to the clubs, followers of the gutted stick pastime should witness another thriller.

Ed Popham, veteran arbiter, and "Red" Baker, well-known local player, will officiate. The face-off is set for 8 o'clock.

Teams follow:
Bluebirds—M. Smith, N. Coates, E. Holyoak, B. Bousfield, J. Pickford, Gills, D. Coates, O. Connell, McCorkill and Ball.

James Bay—E. McKim, R. Winterburn, W. Allan, R. Clark, A. Cullin, R. Mason, J. Sargent, D. Turner, A. McKim, F. Sargent, C. Thomas, B. Dakers, T. Williams and S. Clark.

His Selection Wins Fourth Straight at Willows Enclosure

Scores Fine Triumph in Opening Gallop and Returns $23.60—Dr. Pook Takes Nanaimo Handicap—Favorites Score in Four Races

Displaying the form that on Tuesday enabled him to score the first "triple" of the present meeting, T. L. Mason's His Selection, a six-year-old black gelding by Twink out of Bartola, yesterday won his fourth successive race when he galloped to victory in the initial event on the afternoon's programme at the Willows track.

His Selection, as in his previous performances, had the speed of the field, and after going to the front very early made every post a winner. However, despite three former triumphs, the "thoroughbred" was overlooked by the punters, and those who backed him received $23.60 for their choice. The return was the longest paid by His Selection in his four victories and, incidentally, the only double-figure winning pay-off made yesterday.

Dr. Pook, A. H. Mayland's four-year-old, topped the feature event, the Nanaimo Handicap, at six furlongs and thirty yards, with a neck decision over Some Turley. It was Dr. Pook's third win, but the margin was much smaller than in earlier races. Mac Phalaris, locally-owned thoroughbred, making his initial start of the meeting at the Willows, was third.

DEAD HEAT

As was the case Wednesday, the final gallop provided the closest finish. When Brownfer and Bowers came home in a dead heat, Spartan Beauty was third. Bowers, well placed back of the leaders for five-eighths, moved up fast on the back stretch, challenged for the lead turning for home and managed to get up on even terms with Brownfer a few yards from the wire and hung on.

Favorites scored in four of the seven gallops, with second and third choice mounts taking the lion's share of the purses in two races, and His Selection, a sixth-choice thoroughbred, won the initial event. The shortest price of the day was paid by The Pagan, winner of the fifth race on the card.

Society Editor and Wexford Boy combined to make a daily double of $17.35, while quinella bets in the fifth and seventh races returned $11.05 and $26 respectively.

Jockey Christensen was the day's leading handboot, piloting two winners to the wire.

GOOD PROGRAMME TODAY

Another good programme of racing will be presented today as the meeting reaches its twelfth day, leaving only two more days before the 1938 season on British Columbia tracks comes to a close. Four sprints and three distance events are listed, with the invitation Handicap at six furlongs and thirty yards as the feature attraction.

Saturday's card will feature the running of the annual Daily Colonist Handicap, over a distance to be decided upon by the racing stewards. The winner in this event will be decorated immediately following the finish of the event.

LIFE'S LIKE THAT - By Fred Neher

"Put Those Bats Down and Call Me That!"

Jane Dixon Says:

PROBLEMS IN BRIEF: A GIRL WANTS TO KNOW WHAT TO DO WITH A FELLOW WHO WON'T ACCEPT HER APOLOGY FOR SHARP REMARKS SHE MADE IN A FIT OF TEMPER—A MOTHER OVERRULES A FATHER'S OBJECTIONS TO THEIR THIRTEEN-YEAR-OLD DAUGHTER'S GOING ON DATES WITH BOYS—DISPENSING WITH HATS IS COMFORTABLE, BUT NOT NECESSARILY ECONOMICAL, FOR WOMEN.

Eventually you may sink trouble with a smile; but never can you drown trouble in tears.

Marjorie B.: You have apologized to the young man for your flurry of temper and your sharp words. You are sincerely sorry, because you want to keep his friendship. He is the stubborn sort, who won't respond to your overtures. He says he doesn't want to take the chance of being put on the spot again in public. What can you do to convince him you will not offend him again?

You have done all that can be done to make amends. So stop asking for what the young man is not willing to offer. Perhaps he enjoys seeing you in the role of penitence. Consider the incident of the lost temper closed, and do not mention it to him again. Be lukewarm if he brings up the subject. Show friendliness toward him and good cheer in his company. If he considers your friendship worth saving, he will stop pouting.

Angry Father: Your wife ignores your orders and allows your daughter, barely fourteen, to go on dates with boys. She deceives you by telling you "alater" has gone to the home of a friend or is "out playing with the girls." Your daughter is inclined to be a little "wild," and you are tormented by the thought she might make the sad mistake other undisciplined girls have made. Your wife insists you are a crank—that all girls your daughter's age go with boys these days. Is she right about this?

Your wife is not right. She is wrong, on two counts. Very few girls of thirteen are permitted to go out on dates with boys. Those who do have careless or unintelligent parents.

By helping your daughter to deceive you, by encouraging her to do what is dangerous to the child's well-being, your wife is being a bad helpmate and a very poor excuse for a mother. Try to make her understand she is failing in her duty to the child, that you both must work together to protect your daughter and safeguard her real woman's happiness. If your wife lacks the heart and the head to co-operate with you in this problem, better issue orders and see to it that they are obeyed.

Question Mark: A great many girls, and women too, are dispensing with hats nowadays, except for formal occasions. This fashion is scarcely a money-saver, though. It requires a great deal of hair-grooming, so we simply turn over to the hairdresser the better part of the money we formerly spent with the milliner. Comfortable fashion, isn't it?

What Today Means

"LIBRA"

If September 23 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 10.15 a.m. to 12.15 p.m.; from 2.15 to 4.15 p.m.; and from 8.15 to 10.15 p.m. The danger periods are from 8.15 to 10.15 a.m.;

NIGHT COUGHING CAN OFTEN BE PREVENTED
If your child often coughs at night because of even a slight cold—do this at bedtime: Thoroughly massage Vicks VapoRub on throat, chest, and back. VapoRub's powerful action tends to keep the air-passages clear, helping to maintain normal breathing through the nose, and so reducing mouth-breathing (the frequent cause of night coughing). Try it tonight—learn for yourself another reason why VapoRub is a family standby in more homes than all other remedies of its kind put together.

VICKS VAPORUB

from 6.15 to 8.15 p.m., and from 10.15 p.m. until midnight.

If this first day of Autumn is also the starting of a new year of your life, you were born under the Zodiac sign Libra, ruled by Venus and symbolized by the balance. Evenness of disposition and the ability to keep your equilibrium under the most trying conditions are dominant characteristics, which should help you greatly throughout life. Your love for the aesthetic and costly comforts may be traced directly to the influence of Venus. Generally, politeness and consideration are among the qualities you ought to possess that will help make many people desire your friendship. You run the danger of becoming superficial, which is one of the things that might interfere with your popularity, so fight any inclination you might have in this respect. Isolated communities, or lonely environments are not likely to appeal to you. Light music and crowds are apt to thrill and delight you. The opal is your birthstone, and your Luckdays should prove to be your Luckiest days. The goldenrod, pansy, violet and nasturtium are your natal flowers. Married and engaged couples, and those whose sentimental regard for someone has turned into ardent love, must not become self-centred and forget their social obligations. If they expect to retain their family and friends approval.

If a woman and September 23 is your birthday, crimson and navy blue are two colors you should be partial to, for they are among your natural affinities. Through keen perception and the ability to discriminate between right and wrong your judgment is likely to be sound. You believe most likely in doing things in a systematic manner, especially in planning social activities. If you engage in writing, singing, lecturing, acting or play a musical instrument, your success is apt to be most gratifying. Your marital pain seems likely to lead you to a contented state of mind through the realization of some of your cherished hopes.

The child born on September 23 has generally a great deal of personal pride and an attractive personality that reflects an optimistic nature and a happy disposition.

If a man and September 23 is your natal day, you ought to have some exceptionally fine mental qualities and a fine appreciation of moral obligations. Through real estate, the stage, pulpit, literature, painting, publishing, chemistry and work of a scientific or mechanical nature you are likely to become a man of substance and highly respected.

Teacher—Willie, define the word "puncture."

Willie—A puncture is a little hole in a tire, usually found a great distance from a garage.

BLACKHEADS Don't squeeze blackheads—dissolve them. Get two ounces of peroxide powder from any drug store and rub gently with wet, hot cloth over the blackheads. They simply dissolve and disappear by this safe and sure method. Have a Hollywood complexion.
